
S&P Global Ratings

Policy: Avoiding Selective Disclosure

Date: 23 May 2016

Policy Statement

S&P Global Ratings must not selectively disclose Material Non-Public Information when communicating with market participants except as permitted to be disclosed to Issuers under S&P Global Ratings' policies. These restrictions are in addition to the requirements of S&P Global Ratings' policies concerning Confidential Information.

This policy is designed to facilitate compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements. Material Non-Public Information includes, among other things, Rating Decisions.

Nothing herein or in our policies prohibits or restricts an Employee from initiating communications directly with, or responding to an inquiry from, or providing information to, any self-regulatory organization or any other state or federal regulatory authority acting in a regulatory capacity, including the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). All provisions of this Policy and our other Policies should be construed in a manner consistent with the preceding sentence.
