Policy Statement

Within its sole discretion, S&P Global Ratings determines whether to issue a Credit Rating. S&P Global Ratings may decline specific requests for Credit Ratings, may decline to issue Credit Ratings on subsequent Issues, or may withdraw or suspend an existing Credit Rating. When consistent with regulatory requirements in applicable jurisdictions and its policies, guidelines, and Criteria, S&P Global Ratings will issue and maintain a Credit Rating if it has sufficient information of satisfactory quality for a Credit Rating. S&P Global Ratings will not refrain from issuing or revising any Credit Rating based on the potential effect (economic, political, or otherwise) on it, an Issuer, an investor, or other market participant. S&P Global Ratings publishes a Credit Rating Rationale depending on market interest or as required by regulation.

S&P Global Ratings may assign Confidential Credit Ratings or Private Credit Ratings if S&P Global Ratings has determined not to assign an Unsolicited Credit Rating. Confidential Credit Ratings and Private Credit Ratings are subject to substantial distribution and publication restrictions. In addition, in certain jurisdictions, S&P Global Ratings may limit the availability of Private Credit Ratings to certain Issue sizes, to a set number of recipients, or to cases where certain regulatory conditions are met.

S&P Global Ratings may assign a preliminary rating based on information that is subject to finalization but is otherwise consistent with its Sufficient Information Policy. S&P Global Ratings will assign a final Credit Rating when it receives the finalized information that was used in arriving at the preliminary Credit Rating.

Consistent with its other applicable policies, including the Protection of Information Policy, S&P Global Ratings may assign Unsolicited Credit Ratings when S&P Global Ratings believes sufficient market interest exists for the Rated Entity.
